Hidden Valley Farms elected to AAA group

Hidden Valley Farms, William T. Curd, Jr., Appomattox, Virginia, has been elected to membership in the American Angus Association, reports Dick Spader, executive vice-president of the national organization with headquarters in St. Joseph, Missouri.

The American Angus Association, with some 38,000 active life and junior members, is the largest beef cattle registry association in the world. Its computerized records include detailed information on nearly 10 million registered Angus.

The Association records ancestral information and keeps records of production on individual animals for its members. These permanent records help members select and mate the best animals in their herds to produce high quality, efficient breeding cattle which are then recorded with the American Angus Association. Most of these registered Angus are used by the U. S. farmers and ranchers who raise high quality beef for U. S. consumption.

SS meet set

The Southern States Cooperative local Annual Membership Meeting for Coleman and Sons will be held July 21.

This decision was made by local farmer-members at a recent Annual Meeting Planning Conference held May 11.

Among the features of this year's Annual Meeting will be reports on operations of both Southern States Cooperative and the local dealer for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1982. The Southern States report will focus on the need for farmers to band together cooperatively to solve common problems pertaining to agriculture. This cannot be done successfully if they act independently.

In addition there will be elections, or reports on elections and other business matters.

Attending the planning conference were Don and Ronald Coleman, co-managers of Coleman and Sons, Inc. and G. Maxey Slater, a member of Southern States Cooperative's regional office staff at Richmond.

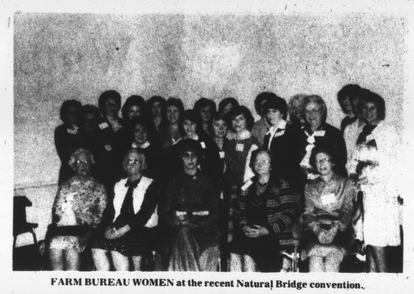
Also at the session were the following members of the local Board Committee and Farm Home Advisory Committee: Mr. Jimmy E. Tweedy, Dennis W. Drinkard, Kent P. Hamilton, Boyd Thompson, Amber Webb, Mrs. Cliff Plunkett, Mrs. Ted W. Layne, Mrs. J. B. Drinkard, Jr., Mrs. O. B. Garriss, Mrs. T. W. Harrison, and Mrs. Kelly D. Stratton.

Farm women attend convention

A delegation from the Appomattox County Farm Bureau Women organization attended the statewide convention at Natural Bridge recently.

The women in attendance particiapted in three workshops. The "Cottage Industries-Making Dollars at Home" session was led by Teresa Weaver of "Dream Weavers" in Windsor and Elinor Kuhn of "Buffet" in Richmond. Joyce Byrd, coordinator of the Strasburg Family Enrichment Program, led the "Farm Woman and Stress" workshop. The third workshop, "Establishing Credit Relations", presented information on the financial concerns of farm women and was led by Richard Reeves of the Federal Land Bank in Staunton.

Another feature the women enjoyed, according to Margaret Glover, Louise Martin and Ruby Almond was a motivational exercise led by Marsha Herndon, AFBF Director of Women's Programs. Herndon also challenged the women at the final luncheon with her talk "If It Is To Be, It's Up to Me."



FARM BUREAU WOMEN at the recent Natural Bridge convention.

Guest speakers at the two day meeting included Commissioner of Agriculture Mason Carbaugh who spoke on "An Outlook on Virginia Agriculture". "Today's Farm Women - Partners in Agriculture" was the title of a special presentation by Ann Kaiser, the editor of Farm Wife News. Dr. Mitchell Geasler, Interium Dean of Extension at VPI&SU, discussed the "Role of the Extension Service in Modern Agriculture".

Margaret Glover, Louise Martin and Ruby Almond termed the meeting a "big success, that was well attended."

Letter

Dear Sir:

As chairman of the 1982 Cancer Fund drive in the Pamplin area, I wish to thank all of those whose generosity made this our most successful fund-raising effort. The goal for this part of the county was $600.00. The total amount contributed was $656.36.

On behalf of the Appomattox Unit of the American Cancer Society, I also want to express appreciation to the following 1982 Cancer Crusaders: Erma Coffin, Judy Covington, Elbert Davis, Junius Davis, Luther Glenn, Pam Harris, Jane Inge, Bob Miner, Edith Southern, Jane Wingfield and Julia Wingfield.

Yours sincerely,
Margaret L. Dudley
